

BUS TRIP TO CHANTICLEER GARDEN!

Friends of Laurelwood Arboretum and DIG IT! Magazine are teaming up to bring you an exciting garden day trip on Wednesday, July 12, 2017 to Chanticleer Garden in the Brandywine Valley of Pennsylvania.

At Chanticleer, a 35-acre Pleasure Garden, get ready to give your senses a workout on guided tours throughout its many gardens and also the first floor of the Rosengarten's late 1900s manor house. We'll whisk off to Terrain Restaurant/Nursery/ Garden Gift Shop extraordinaire, where your senses will be further treated to a scrumptious lunch made from local produce, meat and dairy. We'll engage in passion-quenching shopping, and top it off with home-made ice cream and decadent toppings from the ice cream bar.

Come join the rolling garden party!
