

Local artist, Nancy Rogers will be exhibiting her work at the Knippenberg Center for Education Laurelwood Arboretum from August 12th through September 3rd. She will host an open artist's reception on August 19th from 1pm to 4pm featuring refreshments and live music. Bring your friends and family and be sure to leave time to stroll around the beautiful gardens. What better way to spend a Sunday afternoon?

.The gallery is open from 1pm to 4pm Tuesdays through Sundays. The arboretum is open from 8am to sunset every day.

NANCY ROGERS, ARTIST exhibiting at Laurelwood Arboretum

Artist's Reception August 19th 1-4

Exhibit runs 8/12—9/3

Nancy is a lifelong resident of Wayne. Her work includes oils, acrylics and pastels painted en plein air and from her own photographs. This year's special exhibit will highlight the beauty of Laurelwood Arboretum as well as several other local treasures. Nancy has been painting in Laurelwood for over 40 years.

Although she has traveled all around the United States, Canada, Europe and beyond, paintbrush in hand, she finds some of her very best subjects right in her hometown. Nancy also teaches, conducts workshops and exhibits in New Jersey and Florida.